When it comes to educating people on the ins and outs of building 3DX rooms and props, no single person deserves more credit than HotKitty¹. Not only does she generously share many of her props for free but she also runs the most popular discord server for builders: [The Builder's Corner] (<https://discord.gg/thebuilderscorner>). This page provides a collection of youtube videos by HotKitty that should be a good starting point for anyone trying to learn the secrets the world builder.
