FEATURED PERSONALITIES & INTERVIEWS

TammyXXX: A DJ known for "puristic" hard techno. She emphasizes 100% analog craftsmanship, refusing to use "Sync" buttons or AI support during her live sets. Off-stage, she discusses her submissive lifestyle as a balance to her dominant stage presence.

CurtWoodman: Founder of The Hidden Circle Gazette. He transitioned from running a virtual pub to managing a premier news and arts platform that showcases the creative side of 3DX, including architecture and music.

Pypr: An artist and resident of the "STATION" club. She practices "sound-to-color synesthesia," creating digital water-color paintings live in-game based on the music played by DJs.

SugarLicious: A veteran user and DJ of five years who works in the IT industry in real life. She focuses on Progressive Trance and promotes a "work hard, play hard" philosophy.

ZoeKinky: A self-described "goth at heart" who enjoys public role-play and stripping. She discusses the thrill of "the hunt" and the importance of smart conversation over crude messages.
