x-Clusive Fashion Show

BY CURT WOODMAN — 2024-09-25

Tuesday September 24th saw the latest edition of the x-Clusive Fashion Show. Originally created by KarinSwe, the show has recently been handed over to the duo Neenna and MacBull. KarinSwe remains heavily involved though as both a model and the resident DJ for the event.

The new management quickly involved Arsinoe of Black Rose¹ fame as moderator. A smart move as Arsinoe is of course no stranger to organising and managing large events. The decision seems to have paid dividends as the show saw a record attendance of close to 200 people. It was by far the largest room of the day.

Fashion and music go hand in hand and as such it's an essential part of a show like this. As mentioned before, music for the evening was provided by KarinSwe. The playlist couldn't convince our reporter at first, but it quickly found its groove in a happy disco vibe that complimented the catwalk perfectly.

Greeter of the day was MmeNini who made sure everyone attending the evening had a warm welcome. Security was provided by Orela whose watchful eye kept a lookout for trouble and assured everything went smoothly.

Another high profile event was organised the week before by The Fashion House: an extremely professional organisation that put on a smooth and well choreographed show. The Fashion House targets a Russian language audience and as such leaves room for an English language event to cater to a more international audience.

The x-Clusive Show felt less mature and this was only to be expected as it was the first outing of the new management. However, the 3DX community enthusiastically embraced the event and this edition clearly shows the potential and talent of the team to create something truly unique.

We are excited to see how this event will evolve in the future.

No fashion show would be complete without a charismatic voice to announce the models. The announcer of the evening was Vibrent who brought her trademark whimsical sense of humour and sensuality to lighten up the atmosphere. We could see several chuckles in the audience at the little jokes wrapped into her introductions.

Let's celebrate the beauty of the designs, the energy of the runway, and the dedication of the individuals who have made this fashion show a truly unforgettable experience. Today, the runway became a portal where we journeyed together, exploring the latest trends, celebrating the diverse aesthetics, and marvelling at the sheer brilliance of our models and designers.
